GRANI'S BIRTHDAY.

The Seventy-Ninth Anniversary of Gen. Grant's Birth Celebrated at Galena, Ill.

A NUMBER OF GUESTS FROM CHICAGO.

Among Them was Rev. Frank W. Gunsaulus, Who was the Orator of the Day, and Who Dwelt Upon the Innate Honesty that Permented Grant's Character.

Galena, Ill., April 28 .- The seventyninth anniversary of the birth of Gen. Grant was celebrated here. The occasion was the tenth of a series and speaker of the day, Rev. Dr. Frank W. Gunsaelus, and a party of distinguished guests arrived from Chicago at 1:18 o'clock and were escorted to Turner hall.

Rev. Dr. Gunsaulus' address was warmly received by an immense audi-100 miles. Letters of regret were read from Mrs. Gen. Grant, Mrs. Sartoris, ciation, delivered the address of wel-

Rev. Frank W. Gunsaulus, the orator of the day, in the course of his address, said:

"We are worthy of the memory of Grant only when we have his magnanimity, straightforwardness, heroism and sense of justice toward the men of every race. It is demoralizing for us to parade our shallow scepticism as to the value of emancipation and the necessity of honest sufrage for the negro in the presence of this great name and seek to simulate contentment as to the condition of the freedmen when the thunder of his uncompromising righteousness fills our who has the ballot in his hands and the franchise must be protected, or we must at last sink into abysses of hypocricy with Grant's monument casting a shadow over us. Our American life needs now, as never before, to emulate the man who was as gentle as he was strong, who never knew how to boast and who be-lieved in the simplicity of righteousness. It was Grant who prevented the republic from breaking its moral contract made by the the greenback and it will be the American spirit such as we then saw in-

When Grant sent Sheridan to Louisioutrage and wrong. It will require a stern heroism at the north to beat back a wave of supercilious and unmanly prejudice against the negro which will as practically deprive him of his civil rights as that same prejudice once enslaved him at the south. It is a great day when Wise, of Virginia, who has in his blood the memory of that Wise, of Virginia, who hung John Brown, stands courageously against the apparent decadence of the Union League club of New York city and below the below it health the below the standard of the Court of the Co and helps to bring it back to the stand-ard under which it fought in the days of Grant and Lincoln. It was mercantilism which was willing to permit Lincoln and Grant to be ineffective against the slave power nearly forty years ago. It is now a sodden and greedy commercialism which chokes the conscience of the republic, and nothing but the love of justice in which the sword of Grant was sharpened and ground will save our nation and our constitution as before. So long as state sov-ereignty may annul constitutional amend-ments and destroy the liberty or threaten the ballot of an American citizen, be he black or white, we are utterly un-worthy of the memory of Ulysses S. Grant. His spirit alone makes us a na-

"Now Dont Get the Blues." Sigridur, Jonsdottir, Kirmarstodum. Reykholasveit, Bardastrandarsyslu,

When a cheerful, brave and light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the blues, it is a sad picture.

It is usually this way:

She has been feeling out of sorts for some time, experiencing severe headache and backache; sleeps very poorly and is exceedingly nervous.

Sometimes she is nearly overcome by faintness, dizziness, and palpitation of the heart; then that bearing-down feeling is dreadfully wearing.

Her husband says, "Now, don't get the blues! You will be all right after you have taken the doctor's medicine."

But she does not get all right. She grows worse day by day, until all at once she realizes that a distressing female complaint is established.

Her doctor has made a mistake.

She loses faith; hope vanishes; then comes the morbid, melancholy, everlasting blues. She should have been told just what the trouble was, but probably she withheld some information from the doctor, who, therefore, is unable to accurately locate her particular illness.

Mrs. Pinkham has relieved thousands of women from just this kind of trouble, and now retains their grateful etters in her library as proof of the great assistance she has rendered them. This same assistance awaits every sick woman in the land.

Menses would appear sometimes in two weeks, then again not for three or four months. I was so tired and weak, could not sleep nights, sharp pains would dart through my heart that would almost cause me to fall.

"My mother coaxed me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had no faith in it, but to please her I did so. The first bottle helped me so much that I continued its use. I am now well and weigh more than I ever did in my life,"—MRS. WINIFRED ALLENDER, Farmington,Ill.
